Welcome to our website!

We are pleased that you are visiting our website and thank you for your interest in our association, our services, and our website. The protection of your privacy when using our website is important to us. Therefore, please take note of the following information:

Anonymous data collection

In principle, you can visit our websites without telling us who you are. We only learn the name of your Internet service provider, the website from which you are visiting us and the pages you visit on our website. This information is analyzed for statistical purposes. You remain anonymous as an individual user.

Collection and processing of personal data

Personal data is only collected if you provide it to us voluntarily, for example to execute a contract, a survey or when registering for personalized services.

These data may be part of our collection:

- your name and contact details (for example name, address, phone number and email address), company name (if any), and other basic information;
- information provided to us by or on behalf of you or generated by us in the course or providing services to our members, partners, involved startups or interested third parties;
- information provided to us for the purposes of organizing and performing any of our activities;
- information in relation to materials and communications we send to you electronically, for example your use of marketing e-mails;
- information provided to us in relation to your investments;
- data provided to us in the context of an IAS survey;
- information provided during a start-up pitch or coaching;
- any other information relating to you which you may provide to us.

As part of our personalized services, your registration data will be processed with your consent for the purposes of advertising and market research as well as for the needs-based design of electronic services.

We also collect or generate personal data while providing services to our members, partners, involved startups and interested third parties, and we may collect personal data from other sources for example to keep your information up to date using publicly available sources.

Use and disclosure of personal data

The personal data collected by us within the scope of the websites will only be used without your consent for contract processing, inquiry processing and improving IAS services. In addition, your data will be used for the purposes of advertising and market research and for the needs-based design of our electronic services if you have given your prior consent. Your data will also only be used for personalized advertising with your consent. Your data will not be passed on to third parties unless explicitly agreed for a particular situation and/or to comply with our legal, regulatory and risk management obligations, including establishing, exercising, or defending legal claims.

External links

For your optimal information, you will find links on our website that refer to third-party websites. If these are not obviously recognizable, we will inform you that they are external links. We have no influence whatsoever on the content and design of these pages of other providers. The guarantees of this data protection declaration therefore naturally do not apply there.

Despite careful checking of the content, we accept no liability for the content of external links. The operators of the linked pages are solely responsible for their content.
